

CHAPERONES ARE AVAILABLE

Patients and healthcare providers have the right to have a chaperone present during any examination, treatment, or procedure, regardless of their gender.

Some examinations, treatments, or procedures require the presence of a chaperone.

At any time during an office visit, a patient or the healthcare provider may request a chaperone.

Let your provider or nurse know if you would like a chaperone present.